FOR ADMINISTRATIVE USE ONLY

Monthly MAGI Income Formula: Monthly Taxable Income Sources minus (-) Monthly Deductions

For taxable income, follow these instructions to calculate monthly MAGI income:

- If the individual is Paid Every Week, Every Two Weeks, or has Unstable Income: 1) Add the individual's checks together for the 30-day period, 2) Divide that by the number of checks to calculate an average, 3) Multiply the average by, 4.3 if paid weekly, or 2.15 if paid every two weeks. Repeat for each applicable individual (spouse or household member)
- If the individual is Paid Semi-Monthly: Add the two amounts together. Repeat for each applicable individual (spouse or household member).
- If the individual is Paid Monthly: No calculation is needed.

Monthly MAGI Income: Self $

_____ Spouse/Household $_____ Note: (Non-Taxable Income is not included in MAGI)

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The following statements reflect your rights and responsibilities as an individual seeking medical and support services from Ryan White All Parts (ABCD) Programs in the State of Nevada.

Client Rights

1. Respect, Courtesy, and Privacy: You have the right to be treated at all times with respect and courtesy within a setting which provides you with the highest degree of privacy possible.

2. Freedom from Discrimination: You have the right to freedom from discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, veteran's status, or national origin.

3. Access to HIV/AIDS Service Information: You have the right to be informed by your health care and/or social service provider about the full range of available HIV/AIDS treatments and about related available social and support services. You have the right to be advised of the risks and to discuss the benefits of any proposed treatments/services. You have the right to give your informed consent to any treatments/services or services before they are provided.

4. Identity and Provider Credentials: You have the right to know the names, titles, specialties, and affiliations of all health and social service providers, and anyone else involved in your care. You have the right to know about the health or social service organization's policies and procedures.

5. Culturally Sensitive Sharing of Information: You have the right to have information shared with you in a respectful manner that is easy to understand and takes into account the differences in each person's background, culture, and preferences.

6. Consent and the Care Plan: You have the right to be involved in the development of an individualized plan of care prior to and during the course of treatment. You have the right to disagree, change your mind, or request a medical second opinion without affecting the ongoing availability of treatment/services.

7. Choice and Access to Service: You have the right to be informed of all available services upon intake. You have the right to choose and receive all treatments/services for which you qualify.

8. Declining Service: You have the right to decline treatments/services without pressure from your healthcare or social service provider. You have the right to refuse to participate in any research studies or experiments that the provider may recommend. You have the right to change your mind after refusing or consenting to treatment, clinical trials, counseling, or any other service without affecting ongoing care.

9. Naming an Advocate: You have the right to choose an advocate. You may have more than one advocate (such as a family member or another person) to give you support and represent your rights.

10. An Advanced Directive for Care: You have the right to have advance directives, such as a Living Will, Healthcare Proxy, or Durable Power of Attorney for health and social services.

11. Access to Financial Information: You have the right to ask questions about and see all of your health care bills. You have the right to get referrals and help with any payment problems.

12. Confidentiality and Access to Records: You have the right to have all of your records kept strictly confidential, and not released without your permission. You have the right to access all of your records, unless the information is expressly excluded as outlined in HIPPA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act), and to have copies of these at a fair copying cost.

13. Transferred and Continuity of Care: You have the right to uninterrupted treatments/services. If possible, your requests to leave one provider and be seen by another should be honored and happen as soon as possible. You may NOT be transferred to another provider or facility without an explanation for the transfer. You must be informed of other options that are available.

14. A Client Grievance Procedure: You have the right to voice complaints, to suggest changes, and to be informed about how to file a grievance (a formal written complaint). You have the right to do this without harassment, interference or pressure. You have the right to request a copy of an agency's grievance policy and procedures. You have the right to contact the Ryan White Recipient Offices to appeal an agency's decision about your grievance or at any point should you feel that the agency is not responsive to your grievance.

Initials:

Client Responsibilities

1. Respect, Courtesy, and Confidentiality: Health and social service providers have the right to be treated with respect and courtesy at all times. 2. Giving Correct and Complete Information: You are responsible for giving your provider accurate and complete information; you must give this information to the best of your ability. You are responsible for giving accurate and complete information about third party payers (such as insurance companies, Medicaid, Medicare) to your providers and their facilities

3. Seeking Facts About Your Case: You are responsible for asking questions about the care you are receiving if you do not completely understand 4. Following Treatment Plans: You are responsible for following treatment plans that you and your providers have agreed upon. You have the responsibility to tell your provider right away if you decide to stop your treatment or go against your provider's advice.

5. Scheduled Appointments: You are responsible for keeping appointments that you and your provider have scheduled. If you have to cancel, you are responsible for notifying your provider.

6. Rules and Regulations of Service Provider Organizations: You are responsible for following the rules and regulations of your providers and their agencies/facilities.

7. Voicing Complaints and Grievances: You are responsible for voicing complaints and presenting grievances in a courteous, appropriate, and timely manner. You should do this by following the provider's grievance policy and procedure, and you may ask for help in doing this if you need it. You are responsible to appeal an agency's decision about your grievance to the Ryan White Recipient Offices or to contact the Recipient Offices if you feel the agency is not responsive to your grievance.
